Council web blunder puts residents in fear

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS claim they are 'living in fear' after a council blunder led to their personal details being leaked online.

Dozens of residents of Far Holme, in Milton Keynes Village, submitted a survey complaining about problems with youths hanging around their local play area to MK Council last Wednesday.

The council mistakenly put the information, which included their full names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses and the names and ages of their children, on its website for 18 hours.

Now the residents fear they may be targeted by some of the 50 or so youths who regularly congregate at the play area.

They have been experiencing problems with antisocial behaviour, including eggs being thrown at houses, urinating up doors and leering in windows, since the play area opened in March.

Following complaints to the council and police it was closed less than two weeks later and officers stepped up patrols, but residents say this has not solved the problem.

One, who wished to remain anonymous, said: "There were children in the park the other night. We weren't sure what they were going to do after the data leak so we had to call the police. I'm disgusted – we're living in fear."

Mike Brown is the assistant director of environmental services at MK Council and is in charge of the officers who put the names and addresses online.

He said: "We are very sorry that human error led to personal details of local residents being published on the council's website. The document was removed immediately when we realised the error.

"The play area in Milton Keynes Village has been closed while we investigate the problems residents have told us about. We are consulting with residents on possible options for the future of the area."

A police spokesman said: "We have had reports of antisocial behaviour around the play area from residents since it opened. We have responded by increasing our patrols and have ensured there has been a regular high visibility police presence."

The future of the play area is due to be discussed at a meeting organised by the council at the Civic Offices on June 2 at 6.30pm.

Russell Street School headteacher Sandra Lewis, centre with glasses, is joined by teachers from around Europe

European teachers guests at school

THERE was an international flavour at Russell Street School in Stony Stratford when teachers from across Europe paid a visit.

The guests flew in from Germany, Turkey, Sweden and Slovenia to share ideas about outdoor education.

Activities included growing plants and seeds, singing and getting to grips with a new language.

Russell Street headteacher, Sandra Lewis, said: "The guests loved England and the children adored having them in school."

Lib Dems rule out coalition council

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE city is expected to have a Conservative-led council from next week after the Liberal Democrats ruled themselves out of joining forces with another party.

The new Liberal Democrat group leader Sam Crooks told MK NEWS his party 'don't want to do a Gordon Brown' by hanging on and trying to form a majority with another party.

The Conservatives gained four seats from the Lib Dems and became the largest party in the elections earlier this month, but they still did not win enough seats to automatically take control of the council.

Although nothing will be confirmed until next Tuesday when the council leader and cabinet will be formally selected, the Tories are now expected to form a minority administration as the Lib Dems have done for the last few years.

Councillor Sam Crooks, who took over as leader of the Lib Dems from Cllr Cec Tallack last week, said his party would prefer to form the opposition.

Referring to the former Labour Prime Minister's failed attempts to form a coalition Government, Cllr Crooks said: "We feel that we don't want to do a Gordon Brown by hanging on.

"The electorate have made their decision and so we will form the opposition."

He also warned the Tories they would be 'watching them like hawks' over the coming year.

Cllr Andrew Geary, who was re-elected as the Conservative group leader last week and would become the leader of the council if they form the administration, welcomes opposition from the Lib Dems.

"Good opposition will always lead to better decision making, so having an opposition which is being observant is good for Milton Keynes," he said.

"However, I hope that this will be a constructive opposition like we had last year."

To find out which party will have its first Milton Keynes councillor this year, turn to page 17.

Police seek violent robber

AN E-FIT picture has been released by police of a man they want to speak to in connection with a robbery in which a 15-year-old boy was punched.

The attack happened in the area of Vache Lane, Shenley Church End, at 4.30pm on Wednesday, April 20.

The boy had his iPhone stolen and was punched several times, suffering a cut and bruising to his lip.

The offender, pictured, is around 6ft, skinny and was wearing a grey hooded top and three-quarter-length shorts which may have been chequered.

This man punched a teenage boy and stole his phone

With the offender was a white woman who was around 5ft 4ins, of large build and had dyed red hair with black roots. She was wearing very short denim shorts.

In a separate incident on Wednesday, an 18-year-old was also robbed of his phone.

He was walking home at about 10.30pm and as he turned into Daniels Welch, Coffee Hall, five black men surrounded him and demanded he hand over his property or he would be stabbed.

He gave them his mobile phone and they ran off towards Oldbrook.

One of the offenders is 5ft 11ins, slim and about 18 years old. He was wearing dark clothing and a black woollen hat. The second offender is 5ft 8ins, of medium build and was wearing a black mask over his head, white tracksuit-style jacket and dark bottoms.

The other three men are about 5ft 9ins, of medium build and were wearing dark clothing.

Anyone with information should call police on 0845 8 505 505, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Throat-slashing love rival jailed

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN has been jailed for five years after cutting his love rival's throat.

Stephen Dalzell, 45, of Old Wolverton Road, Wolverton, was sentenced at Luton Crown Court on Friday after pleading guilty to inflicting grievous bodily harm with intent.

On September 6 last year he sabotaged a van belonging to Vincent O'Reilly, of Leighton Buzzard, and cut his throat while he tried to repair it.

Dalzell's partner of ten years, Sarah Sellers, had left him for Mr O'Reilly just months before the attack.

The court was told Dalzell drove to his ex-partner's home in Leighton Buzzard and punctured one of Mr O'Reilly's tyres to ensure the pair were together for him to talk to.

Later that morning Mr O'Reilly saw the puncture and headed to a garage but could not drive further than Hockliffe Road.

While he was unscrewing the spare tyre, he felt a hand around his mouth and pressure around his neck.

Jacqueline Matthews-Stroud, prosecuting, said: "He felt his neck was wet and turned to see the defendant standing in front of him holding a knife in his fist. The defendant was saying 'Remember me? Remember me?'"

After Dalzell had fled the scene, passing motorist Wendy Price found Mr O'Reilly bleeding heavily in the road and drove him to Milton Keynes Hospital.

Peter Guest, defending, said when Dalzell approached Mr O'Reilly he had only meant to scare him.

He added: "He realises the gravity of harm he has caused and he is sorry for what he did."

Passing sentence, Judge John Bevan QC said: "You cut his throat, nicking his jugular vein. He could have possibly died - the injury was potentially life threatening."

The court was told Dalzell's daughter had been murdered in 2006 and Judge Bevan said there was no doubt this had deeply affected him.

He added: "When your long-term partner left you for another it tipped you over the edge."

He also awarded Mrs Price, a dinnerlady, £250 out of public funds, adding: "It seems to me Wendy Price behaved in the most public spirited way and quite possibly saved his life."

THERE was a famous face at stadiummk on Sunday afternoon – Manchester United manager Sir Alex Ferguson.

The Scot was in the city just a day after clinching an historic 19th league title for the Red Devils to watch son Darren's Peterborough side in play-off action against the Dons.

Pupils' Olympic efforts recognised

LONG Meadow School has become the first primary in Milton Keynes to be recognised by the London Olympics as a 'Get Set' school.

Pupils have been awarded a plaque in recognition of their involvement in London 2012's education programme and their commitment to the Olympic and Paralympic values.

Children have been appointed as Olympic ambassadors to develop ideas about increasing participation, and the youngsters even got to meet swimming gold medalist Adrian Moorhouse.

Chris Nixon, sports co-ordinator at the Shenley Brook End school, said: "We have worked really hard to develop sport, competition and participation at our school.

"Our children have taken a great interest in the Olympics and we know that many of their parent's have purchased tickets to go and see the events."

Apathetic residents

SIR – Water Eaton Residents' Association held it's anual meeting on May 9.

Volunteers put leaflets through every letterbox in the area covered by the association. The turnout of residents was pathetic.

It would appear the residents have little or no interest in what is happening in Bletchley.

We suffer from the worst maintained roads and footpaths in Milton Keynes.

We have an ever-increasing traffic problem, especially Water Eaton Road, with no interest being shown by Milton Keynes Council.

The Southern Bletchley bypass has not been given priority in the council's Transport Strategy.

There are 5,000 new homes designated for this area. Where is the road infrastruture?

We have a new administration at Milton Keynes Council. Now is our chance to be heard.

Residents' associations have a voice that will be taken notice of. It's about time the residents of Water Eaton got off their rear ends and supported those who wish for a better deal for Bletchley.

R Brinsley
Water Eaton Residents' Association

Unsuitable trees

SIR – With reference to the Two Mile Ash trees, which have been discussed in your recent letters pages.

The horse chestnut (castanea sativa) is truly a majestic tree, eminently suited for parkland and arboretum, not for built-up areas.

I would welcome their removal from Kensington Drive due to the damage caused by roots.

In the past, my husband complained to the Development Corporation. Since his death I have also shown my concerns.

It is some years since I was able to use the redway, but the tarmac was broken through in many places then.

How soon will the roots travel further under properties and perhaps drainage systems?

Name and address supplied

Over prof's head?

SIR – I am utterly amazed that Professor Stephen Potter believes that monorails exist only in the likes of Thunderbirds (Letters, May 4 and 11).

If that is so, how would he describe the transport system which has linked the towns of Oberbarmen and Wohwinkel in Wuppertal, Germany, for the last 110 years?

The eight-mile journey takes approximately 30 minutes, inclusive of nearly 20 intermediate stops.

Mr J L Lean
Greenleys

Open day at court

SIR – Every few years, Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court holds an open day, at which members of the public are very welcome to see what we do and to meet us and those who work with us in the justice system.

This year we celebrate 650 years since the establishment of the office of Justice of the Peace and on Saturday, June 11 from 10.30am to 3pm we shall be marking this by re-enacting a number of historical cases.

Entry to the open day, which is suitable for all the family, is free. As well as the historical cases, we shall be showing the work of the youth, family and civil courts and there will be stalls run by our partner agencies and guided tours (including the cells). Refreshments will be available throughout the day.

The court is at 301 Silbury Boulevard, at the junction with Witan Gate East, and we hope to see many of your readers there.

Co-ordinator, Magistrates in the Community

ONE of our readers captured a sign of hope for gardeners across the city.

Roger Davies took this lovely picture of a rainbow in Stratford Road, Wolverton, on Saturday evening as the long, dry spring continues and the Met Office forcasts little, if any, rain over the next few days.

Help the helpers

SIR – We are a community support group here in Milton Keynes looking for someone or several to 'adopt' us.

We call ourselves Can Do:MK and started as a support group in 2008 through another registered charity, but the funding ran out last July.

The group supports people over 18, living chaotic and isolated lives and helps them back to social inclusion, through group meetings, education, training and volunteering.

When the funding stopped the group did not and members still attend every week and, thanks to a dedicated team of volunteers, the support of Centrecom, Milton Keynes Community Foundation, the Co-operative Communities Fund, John Lewis, Mark Lancaster MP, Milton Keynes Council and others, we are still going – just.

As a group we desperately need to apply for funding for our invaluable and unique service to help socially isolated people.

Lots of funding is out of our reach as we are not a registered charity. The paperwork is done but we do not have £5,000 in the bank. We try to fundraise with cake stalls, making and selling craft goods, people having their beards cut and bodies waxed among our efforts. This helps us day-to-day and short-term but we can make a real difference, long-term if properly funded.

Our past successes include a drunken gambler about to start at Oxford University. An alcoholic drug addict has completed access to social work and is awaiting a university place and a local school and some older residents have had help with their gardens.

We need money to continue and to register as a charity requires £5,000 in the bank.

If anyone can help please contact the group leader on 07920 745979, or email barbarareeves38@btinternet.com. You can also check out Can Do:MK on Facebook.

Woman lied about rape by boyfriend

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A WARNING over lying about being raped has been issued by police after a 19-year-old was fined for making false allegations.

The woman, who cannot be named for legal reasons, told officers on April 4 she had been raped by her former boyfriend in Bletchley.

An investigation was launched and the man was arrested, but it was later discovered she has lied about the incident. She admitted the allegation was false and was given an £80 fixed penalty notice.

DI Dave Dachtler said false allegations can be damaging to the accused.

"The effects on a person who is wrongly accused can be far reaching and long lasting," he said.

"Innocent men can be alienated by their friends and family, they may have problems with maintaining their employment or finding employment in the future.

"Many people view any suspicion of sexual offences with a 'no smoke without fire' attitude and this is unfair to the suspect.

"Often the police are unable to prove the allegation one way or another, even if a malicious rape allegation is suspected. However, sometimes it is possible to prove and we will proceed against anyone who is proved to be making a false allegation of rape or any other sexual assault."

He also explained investigating false claims can be expensive.

He added: "The officers involved in rape investigations are finite resources. If they are working on one investigation they cannot be working on another at the same time."

Chinese universities sign education deal

TOP academics and officials from two Chinese universities will be visiting the city to sign up to a unique higher education partnership.

The delegates from the Zhejiang Gongshang University and the Zhejiang Normal University will arrive at University Centre Milton Keynes (UCMK) tomorrow with a view to organising a summer school, staff and student exchanges and joint degree programmes.

UCMK belongs to a group of higher education institutions that form part of the new South East Midlands Local Enterprise Partnership, with the visiting universities also signing the joint agreement with the University of Bedfordshire and University of Northampton.

Professor Keith Straughan, the dean of UCMK, said: "Zhejiang in China is an important and dynamic province in the world's fastest growing economy.

"We are thrilled to be part of this unique partnership which clearly demonstrates the international significance of Milton Keynes and the South East Midlands."

Letter writer's car fixed for free

A SINGLE mum had her car fixed for free by a kindhearted repair company after staff read her letter in last week's MK NEWS.

Natalie Lewis, 41, was devastated when someone ran their keys down the side of her black Renualt Clio in Central Milton Keynes.

Unable to afford the repair bill of more than £300, she wrote to the paper to express her anger, prompting the city's branch of Nationwide Accident Repairs to spring into action.

They arranged to fix the car for free, much to delight of Miss Lewis, of Grange Farm, and her nine-year-old son Ryan.

She said: "I am totally thrilled and astonished that the company called and agreed to put it right.

"It's truly wonderful that kindness is in the hearts of some of us."

Michael Consitt, business development manager for Nationwide, added that the letter had 'shocked them'.

"It is terrible how people can be so deliberately vicious and cruel," he added.

MP Iain Stewart with volunteers who helped create a sensory garden for children at MK Hospital

Hospital kids get new sensory garden

A NEW sensory garden at Milton Keynes Hospital's children's ward will be launched today after support from the city's two MPs.

On Monday MP for Milton Keynes South, Iain Stewart, visited the garden, which was created by volunteers from local car leasing company Fleetline.

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, also visited the site when work started last Monday.

Staff from the company worked for two weeks to provide a new sensory experience for younger patients and their families.

It includes new play-friendly flooring and special toys and equipment that children can use while staying at the hospital.

Vicky Crockett, from Fleetline, said: "The staff have all really got behind the project and taken this to their hearts – many staff have young children who have stayed on the ward which adds a personal touch to the project."

Chopper rescue story raises £40k

Man saved by air ambulance features in radio advertisement

BY ADAM GRINSELL

adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN who has helped raise £40,000 for the air ambulance has dubbed it 'the best service in the world' after it saved his life.

Bert Draper, 64, from Giffard Park, had to be rescued by the Warwickshire and Northamptonshire Air Ambulance (WNAA) in March 2010 after a large metal upright support fell on him, trapping him and literally folding him in half, when he was working at his classic car business in Castlethorpe.

He suffered several broken ribs, pelvic damage, three fractures to his lower back, a punctured lung and bruising around his heart.

But thanks to the speed and skill of the helicopter crew, Bert was treated and stabilised before he was flown to hospital for further care in just 11 minutes.

Bert said: "I was lucky the WNAA came to my rescue.

"I now have first-hand experience and it is comforting to know they are there. It is the best service in the world.

"The WNAA crew have my heartgiven thanks. I will be forever thankful to them for the fantastic job they do, what a team of true professionals they are, thank you all."

He is now making a good recovery and as a way of saying thank you he told his rescue story on a special radio advert, which has so far raised more than £40,000 for the service.

Catherine Foster, senior fundraising manager for the WNAA, said: "I would like to thank Bert and Milton Keynes for supporting our campaign.

"Their support is making sure that we can answer every emergency call and afford the vital, life-saving equipment we need."

Wife found Big George struggling for breath

BIG George Webley was found struggling for breath by his wife before he died, it was revealed this week.

Sheila Webley was woken up in the early hours of May 7 by George calling her for help at their family home in Stony Stratford.

She discoverd her husband on all fours struggling for breath, but when she opened the door to let in fresh air, he collapsed.

She carried out cardiopulmonary resuscitation until the paramedics arrived, but he was pronounced dead at the scene.

Big George Webley: His wife Sheila tried to resuscitate him after he called for help

He was taken to Milton Keynes Hospital where toxicology samples were taken, but the results were still pending when the inquest into his death was opened and adjourned on Thursday.

The full inquest is due to take place on August 8.

Coroner Thomas Osborne expressed his sympathy to the family, including George's two sons, Harry and Tom, who were at the hearing.

He told them: "May I express my own condolences to you and I hope you pass them on to your mum – it must have been a tremendous shock."

Set for the open road: Kelly Boyes and daughter Jessica get ready for a trip in their car

Lions' car seat cash sees Jessica mobile

A YOUNGSTER suffering from a rare syndrome is now able to ride in her mum's car, thanks to a kind donation.

Jessica Boyes, seven, from Oldbrook, suffers from Angelman Syndrome, which is estimated to occur in just one in every 20,000 births.

This means she cannot walk or talk and requires round-the-clock care.

Until recently her mum, Kelly, couldn't take her in the car because having the wrong kind of seat could result in her developing a curvature of the spine.

But a £400 donation from the Bletchley and Stony Stratford Lions clubs means Kelly has been able to buy a car seat that will last until Jessica is 12.

Kelly said: "It was a very happy day for us and extra special because it was the day before Jessica's birthday."

Village pub set to become a house

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A VILLAGE could lose its pub after planning chiefs said it could be turned into a house.

The Swan Inn in Sherington, which has been a watering hole since 1790, has been put up for sale with permission to turn it into a home after an application by the owner was granted by Milton Keynes Council's planning committee.

The news has come as a blow to residents who saved the pub in High Street in 2009 after campaigning for almost a year to stop former owners Charles Wells turning it into a residential property.

Villager William Griffiths chaired the former action group Save the Swan with the support of locals, Mark Lancaster, the MP for Milton Keynes North, and the Milton Keynes councillor for Sherington at the time, Sam Potts.

Mr Griffiths said: "It's a real shame. We used to have two pubs, a shop and a post office. Now we've just got the White Hart pub. It's down to the economy.

"The people who bought the pub from Charles Wells did the best they could, but people just didn't go in there. They just don't have the spare cash.

"I'm not going to stand in the way now – we've done all we can."

Nikunj Patel reopened the pub in December 2009 after Charles Wells closed it the previous February, but he was forced to call last orders in November.

Mr Lancaster said: "Having worked very closely with the local residents to keep The Swan a pub, it's a great shame that, one year on, it closed again."

Youngsters invited to create city bid artwork fit to be put before the Queen

MILTON Keynes needs your help to give its city status bid a boost.

On Friday, May 27, Milton Keynes Council has to submit its bid for city status to the Government. The bids will be inspected by the Queen before she makes her decision in time for her diamond jubilee in 2012.

But the bid document is missing a front cover, so MK NEWS and the council are asking for people aged 16 and under to send in their artwork. It could be a drawing or painting of where you live, a special place or something that makes you think of Milton Keynes.

Drawings should be sent, along with your name, age, address and contact details, to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, Milton Keynes, MK15 0DU, or emailed to competitions@mk-news.co.uk, by noon on Friday. The winner will be chosen by the mayor, Cllr Alan Richards, and the editor of MK NEWS, Cally Jenkins.

Bank staff dig in for communities

STAFF from Santander in Milton Keynes have taken part in a number of projects to give something back to the community.

Fifty-eight volunteers from the bank planted 1,400 trees at the Stony Stratford nature reserve, renovated the library at High Ash Primary School in Great Brickhill, redecorated Milton Keynes Play Association and painted classrooms at North Crawley C of E School.

It was all part of the Community Days initiative which the bank runs nationwide.

'Best of both' as schools combine

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

TWO schools are merging to offer their pupils a better education.

Knowles Infant and Knowles Junior schools in Bletchley will amalgamate in September next year to create a new primary school for four to 11-year-olds.

The joining of the schools, which are next door to each other, has been supported by parents, staff and Milton Keynes Council and will be overseen by a temporary governing body. The new school will be led by a new governing body and headteacher after both the current heads – Margaret Morris of Knowles Infant and Ruth Sulley of Knowles Junior – decided they will leave in July next year.

Ms Morris said: "The time we spend and the relationships we build with the families of children that join us when they are four will benefit the children for the whole of their primary school career. This is an important contributor to the children achieving their very best before transferring to secondary school. We are looking forward to a very exciting time ahead."

The new school will operate from the two existing buildings and keep the same teaching staff.

Mrs Sulley said: "The amalgamation will combine the best features of both schools.

"Governors and staff of both schools are already hard at work ensuring the transition to a primary school will be seamless."

Ex-sailor exposed to asbestos aboard ship

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A WIFE has paid tribute to her devoted husband, who died from a rare form of cancer after being exposed to asbestos while serving in the navy.

For eight years Peter Ward, 78, of Dingederry, Olney, worked as leading stoker in the engine rooms of ships such as HMS Glory, which played a key role in the Korean war.

But it was down in these engine rooms where he was exposed to asbestos and in October 2009 he was diagnosed with mesothelioma.

Peter and June were both 18 when they met at a dance in London in November 1950 – just a month before Peter joined the navy and was posted to Korea.

After he left, the couple wrote to each other every day for two-and-a-half years and the day Peter returned from Korea he proposed.

June, 78, said: "That was the single most exciting day of my life – it even topped my wedding day.

"He was an excellent husband and wonderful father. He was so devoted and so very, very caring."

"When Peter found out he had mesothelioma he accepted it very gracefully. He felt that he had had 78 good years and couldn't ask for more than that."

During his time in the navy, Peter travelled to many countries including Gibraltar, Japan, Saudi Arabia and Egypt and worked on prestigious ships such as HMS Swiftshore, as well as HMS Glory.

The inquest into Peter's death took place on Thursday at the Civic Offices in Milton Keynes, where the coroner recorded the cause of death as mesothelioma.

Officers crack down on filling station fuel thefts

POLICE are clamping down on fuel thefts from city filling stations after a spate of incidents.

An operation was recently carried out by officers at Total Oil in Broughton and Tesco in Kingston because the area was experiencing around one theft of fuel a day.

It was made clear to drivers entering the forecourts that the stations have automatic number plate recognition technology fitted, a policing tool which reads vehicle number plates and checks them against various computer databases such as the police national computer or the DVLA.

Since the operation thefts of petrol in the area are down to around three a week.

The police have confirmed to MK NEWS that further operations are now planned to prevent this kind of crime, known as bilking, when a customer leaves without paying.

Mayoral chains swap as Alan takes on role

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW mayor for Milton Keynes was sworn in last night.

Liberal Democrat councillor Alan Richards, 74, pictured, took the mayoral chains from Conservative councillor Debbie Brock at a ceremonial meeting at the Civic Offices.

His chosen charities for the year will be MK Snap, which offers support to the disabled, and ex-soldier charity Care for Casualties (The Rifles).

He said: "If I only do half as good a job as mayor as young Debbie has this year then I'll be happy.

"I love Milton Keynes - it's a great place to live.

"It's thriving and it's growing more every day. Becoming mayor is a highlight for me and my wife. People tend to forget the partners of people in local government, but it's them who keep us going."

Manchester-born Cllr Richards first moved to Milton Keynes at the age of 12 and spent his childhood living in a Stony Stratford orphanage.

He said: "I think whatever start in life you may have, you should make the most of it. If anything, it should spur you on."

He went on to serve as a Company Sergeant Major in the army for 23 years and has been a town councillor for Newport Pagnell for ten years. He is now in his second term as a Milton Keynes councillor for Linford North.

The city's deputy mayor, Tory Milton Keynes councillor for Linford South Catriona Morris, was also sworn in last night.

Cllr Morris said: "I look forward to being deputy mayor and supporting Alan wherever I can.

"I cannot wait to represent Milton Keynes in 2012 during the Olympics and possibly even when it becomes a city."

David's latest single to be heard at show

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A POP legend will perform his band's new single at a show celebrating the city's cultural diversity.

British singer David Van Day and his new group Rich and Famous will play their newly-released single at DiverseArts:LIVE, being held at Milton Keynes Theatre on September 18.

Joining the I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here! star will be CMK-based talent Izmael Cunningham - the newest member of the band.

Getting David, who enjoyed success with groups Dollar and Bucks Fizz, on board is a real coup for event organisers Milton Keynes Equality Council (MKEC).

Director Navrita Atwal said: "We hope to act as a vehicle where new artists can get advice and guidance on issues in connection with the world of show business.

"In the past, not a great deal of emphasis has been placed on inequality in show business, but we hope that our work will see that very much needed change with a view to promoting equality."

DiverseArts:LIVE, which will bring different communities together to showcase their culture, traditions and entertainment, has also teamed up with Defi Entertainment - a talent scouting company which will help compile acts for the show.

Mrs Atwal added: "Rather than trying to open a closed door, MKEC, in partnership with Defi Entertainment, has become the doorway for new artists.

"Show business is tough but through DiverseArts:LIVE we will work with big names to introduce artists through a safe platform."

Auditions for DiverseArts:LIVE will take place in June and July.

For more information call 01908 606828, or e-mail navritaa@mkequalitycouncil.org.uk.

Liz vows to stand up for 'ordinary people'

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

AFTER a 40 year wait, the Green Party now has its first Milton Keynes councillor.

Liz Campbell, who resigned from the Labour group last spring and has sat on the council as an independent councillor ever since, announced this week she is to become the authority's first Green representative. She now hopes she will be the first of many Green councillors in the city.

"The Green Party is not just about the environment. I have always strongly supported social justice and believe that we should save services, not cut them," she said.

"Unlike the traditional parties, who all share a privatisation and cuts agenda, the Green Party is willing to stand up for ordinary local people, and I'm happy to stand with them."

Cllr Campbell has represented Bletchley on Milton Keynes Council since 2000. She has campaigned on issues like replacing windows in council homes and she proposed the motion opposing Salden Chase, which became Milton Keynes Council policy.

Leader of the Green Party, MP for Brighton Pavilion Caroline Lucas, said: "It's great news that the Greens are now represented for the first time on the council in Milton Keynes. Liz Campbell has a strong record as a campaigning local councillor and I'm delighted she has joined us. Greens on councils up and down the country are already making a real difference to local communities."

In the elections the Green Party celebrated an increased vote share across the city compared with its record result in 2010.

David 'delighted' to join health trust

THE new man who will oversee the running of the hospital trust's board has started in his role.

David Wakefield, who has been a non-executive director with NHS Milton Keynes and Community Health Services for the last four years and is a qualified accountant, takes over as chairman of the trust, and will also chair the Council of Governors.

He takes over the position from Walter Greaves, who stepped down after three years on April 28.

He said: "I am delighted to be joining the trust and to be able to work as part of the team to deliver an MK health economy that everyone can be proud of."

Mr Wakefield currently lives in Old Stratford, and has been a resident in the Milton Keynes area for the past 11 years.

Mark Millar, interim chief executive for the hospital, said: "I am very pleased that the trust has been able to attract someone with David's level of experience and local knowledge. We welcome him to the trust."

MK tennis ball girl hopes to net final

Malikah Mitchell, 14, who is hoping to be a ball girl at the World Tour Finals at London's O2 Arena

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD could soon be rubbing shoulders with the best tennis players in the world after making it through to the final of a national search for ball boys and girls.

Malikah Mitchell, from Whaddon, is in the running to be a ball girl at this year's World Tour Finals, the season's last event which features the eight highest ranked male players.

She came through a regional trial last weekend and was one of only ten to be put through to a national trial out of nearly 100 who took part.

The Royal Latin School pupil is now in a 100-strong group of hopefuls from all over the country, which will be whittled down again to determine the 30 youngsters who will be lucky enough to grace the court at London's O2 Arena.

Malikah is thrilled at the prospect of mingling with stars such as Roger Federer and Andy Murray and has already earned the chance to meet former Wimbledon Champion Boris Becker, who will be at the final trial.

She said: " I think it would be a great experience to be on court with the players. If I was to get into the final 30 I would be really happy – it would be amazing!"

Coaches have already been impressed with Malikah's athleticism, agility and endurance and she thinks she has the skills needed to shine at the event in November.

"I think the coaches should select me because I am confident and I pay attention to what's going on around me," she said.

The only thing more impressive than the range, is the price.

Work by city pupils goes to the capital

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

ARTWORK produced by city school pupils is set to be displayed at an internationally-renowned gallery in London.

The Saatchi Gallery will exhibit prints produced by Year Four students from Deanshanger Primary School at the beginning of June, after a run in Milton Keynes Gallery's project space.

Following a trip to The Living Rainforest in Newbury earlier this year, the pupils experimented with mono, block and silk-screen printing techniques alongside a variety of mark making implements to create vivid rainforest images.

More than 150 people saw the unveiling of the exhibition at Milton Keynes Gallery earlier this month, including parents and school governors.

Sarah Webb, school co-ordinator, said: "The pupils were completely blown away by it all and it made the evening. They could see what they had achieved and shared it with their parents and the community.

"Some parents said they will be going back to the gallery and taking more relatives to see the work.

"I'm really amazed at what they've achieved and I've been really impressed with Matt Green and Rachel Clarke, the two teachers who supported the work.

"The finished products are outstanding."

The 60 pupils worked with print maker Nicola Griffiths and the project was run in partnership with The Mighty Creatives, a development agency for the East Midlands.

Here's one I made earlier: Year Four pupil Oscar Sammons, right, shows his two younger brothers the work he helped produce

Bikers of all ages rev up to raise cash

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

A DAREDEVIL granddad will join 5,000 bikers in a bid to raise money for charity.

Classic Motorcyle Club member William Sullivan, of Oldbrook, will travel 50 miles in support of the Spinal Injuries Association (SIA) in the charity's first biker event.

Mr Sullivan, 61, who has been a biker since he was 16, said: "It's a great charity to support and spinal injuries are of course something which are very close to the hearts of the motorcyclist community.

"Over the years, I've met many people with such injuries.

"But I don't think people realise – it's not just motorcyclists and horseriders that get spinal injuries – it can happen to anyone.

"I'm really looking forward to it.

"I've just bought a new BMW Adventure bike too, so I'll be looking forward to showing that off."

The run will start from SIA House, Oldbrook, on Friday at 6.30pm and arrive at Ace Café London at 8pm.

Organisers from the charity say they plan to raise around £10,000 on the day with evening raffles and bikers paying a £2 entry fee.

Elizabeth Wright, community development co-ordinator for SIA, said: "The biggest cause of spinal injuries is motorcycle and road accidents – they account for around 40 per cent – so we want to engage with bikers in a really positive, fun way. All the money raised will go towards the Spinal Injuries Association which provides support and information to spinal cord injured people and their families."

To register to take part visit www.spinal.co.uk/page/motorcycle-run-to-ace-cafe, or call 0845 678 6633.

Win a wedding with MKNEWS

IT'S week three of MK NEWS' fantastic £20,000 wedding competition and the entries have been flooding in.

Up to 80 guests will enjoy a reception at Horwood House, which will also provide a photographer and even a civil service if you don't want to get married in a church.

Kuoni and Air Mauritius are offering a £5,000 Mauritian honeymoon, White Orchid Weddings will provide bridal and men's wear up to the value of £1,000, Decesare hairdressers is offering a bridal package worth about £240 and Bobbi Brown is offering its complimentary make-up service.

John Lewis will be offering its gift list service, starting it off with £200 worth of vouchers, and will be helping the mother of the bride look her best by providing a fashion advisor to help her pick her outfit.

Waitrose will provide the wedding cake, Calcutta Brasserie will provide 25 bottles of champagne and Ruth's Floral Design Studio will provide a flower package worth around £400.

Lasaderm is offering a £150 voucher that can be redeemed by the winning bride or groom against any treatment offered by the clinic.

The new clinic at Hilltops Medical Centre in Great Holm offers a number of medical aesthetic treatments, such as laser hair removal, anti-wrinkle injections and skin-rejuvenating procedures.

It says its main objectives are to ensure that people in Milton Keynes wishing to enhance their appearance do so safely and affordably, with a medical expert that they can trust and build a relationship with.

Procedures include microdermabrasion and intense pulsed light (IPL) skin rejuvenation. These non-surgical treatments remove dry skin, deep pores, acne, acne scars, superficial lines and sun damage and leave the skin feeling extremely soft, vibrant and youthful.

You might also choose to have laser hair removal, with the most popular areas for treatment being the face, underarms, bikini line and legs.

Hair is noticeably thinner after two, five minute sessions and permanently reduced after four to six.

You can also have anti-wrinkle injections and fillers, which reduce the signs of ageing by smoothing lines and leaving the skin looking visibly younger.

Dr Mohamed Dewji, partner at LasaDerm, said: "We are very happy to offer the lucky bride or groom complimentary treatment at LasaDerm.

"We understand how vital it is to look and feel your very best on the most important day of your life and look forward to ensuring that the winner is simply radiant when they leave us."

To top off this fabulous competition, Whittlebury Hall will provide a meal for two in its Murrays fine dining restaurant on the winning couple's first wedding anniversary.

Volunteer Rotarians pitch in to help out city OAPs

'When I'm cleaning windows': Club secretary Sir John Southby helping out

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

ROTARIANS in the city have been lending a hand to do those day-to-day jobs that most people take for granted.

Once a year for the last three years the Rotary Club of Milton Keynes, with support from the members of the other five local clubs, have helped older residents, including some more than 100 years old, with jobs they cannot easily do for themselves.

On Saturday, May 7 more than 20 volunteers travelled to every corner of Milton Keynes and upped tools including dusters and paint brushes as part of their Lend A Hand Day.

They completed a wide variety of household tasks, ranging from cleaning windows, clearing weeds and dead shrubs, cutting hedges and clearing out cupboards and sheds.

One disabled lady who has lived in Milton Keynes for many years even had her first ever trip to the shopping centre.

Roger Boulton, service projects committee chairman for the rotary club, said: "Rotary is the biggest volunteer organisation in the world and it's a part of the club to offer services and help out people at no cost.

"The older age population, the frail and the handicapped can't do what everyone else can do and takes for granted every day.

"At a local level we aim to support the community through various charities and the members of our community in any way we can."

The tasks were identified with the help of Age UK Milton Keynes, which also provided the base for the day's activities.

Display celebrates our sporting stars

BY KIRSTEN RAWLINS
kirsten.rawlins@mk-news.co.uk

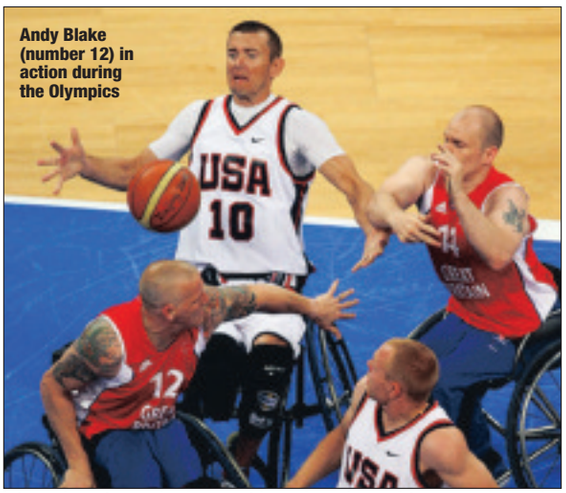
MILTON Keynes' sporting heroes are being honoured in an exhibition.

The Our Sporting Life display celebrates local heroes, as well as Milton Keynes' sporting achievements.

The collection of pictures and artefacts is now on show at three city venues – The Milton Keynes Museum, The National Badminton Centre in Loughton and Discover Milton Keynes at the Central Library – until June 30.

The exhibition marks the city's sporting heritage and highlights its national prominence – being home to the Red Bull Formula One team, the MK Dons and Badminton England.

Featured heroes include Bletchley-born Barry Lines, a footballer with the unique record of having played in all four divisions with Northampton Town, Andy Blake from Newport Pagnell, a three-time Paralympic medallist for swimming and basketball, and Dorothy Scouler from Deanshanger who won gold at the Women's Olympics in 1926.



Andy Blake (number 12) in action during the Olympics

Paul Sanders, Milton Keynes Council's assistant director for leisure, learning and culture, said: "All venues tell a different story and will be running activities during May and June to encourage people of all ages to find out about the rich sporting heritage of Milton Keynes, have a go at sporting activities and create some future heritage of their own."

Roadshow events will also take place later this year where the public will be able to contribute their sporting heritage memories, leading up to a major exhibition at stadiummk in January.

The Our Sporting Life exhibition, funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund, is taking place at 100 towns across the UK with each area showcasing its own sports heritage.

Former soldier is on 174-mile charity walk

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

AN EX-SERVICEMAN from the city is walking 174 miles from Wembley to Old Trafford to raise money for colleagues injured in the line of duty.

David Hand, 53, from Shenley Church End, is hoping to raise £2,000 for the British Limbless Ex-Service Men's Association (BLESMA). The charity, which supports limbless serving and ex-service men and women as well as their dependants and widows, needs about £2million a year to carry out its work.

David said: "I was in the army for around 20 years and I've been to some not very nice places. I left in one piece but some people don't.

"BLESMA steps in and helps them get back to normal life."

David was inspired after seeing a girl in Colchester pull a lorry for the charity and decided he needed to do something special to raise money.

Originally from Manchester, he said he was arrogant enough to think his favourite football team, Manchester United, would be in the FA Cup Final on Sunday so decided to walk from Wembley to Old Trafford in time for their last game this Sunday.

Given MK Dons were playing in the League One play-offs on Sunday, he added: "With hindsight, perhaps I should have started at stadiummk."

Milton Keynes South MP, Iain Stewart, is throwing his full weight behind his constituent in his fundraising bid.

He said: "I pay a heartfelt tribute to our service men and women who risk life and limbs for our sake.

"This is why I am strongly supporting David in his bid to raise money for BLESMA. I do hope the good people of Milton Keynes will also show their support by giving to this good cause."

Bursary boost to help city's artists

BY ADAM GRINSELL
adam.grinsell@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's arts and crafts industry will get another boost this summer, thanks to a number of bursaries.

MK Community Foundation, which supports local charities, organisations and individuals by handing out grants, is offering three bursaries which have been created to enable local artists and crafts people to develop their skills towards building their career in that area.

The largest one available is the £8,000 Arts Bursary, which is on offer to artists working in any medium who can demonstrate a desire to develop their artistic career and skills, or the intention to focus on a new body of work. The award can be used for equipment, materials, training and related costs.

Thanks to the bursaries, previous year's winners, Thomas Eccleshare and Caroline Devine, have been able to focus on taking their artistic careers to the next level, including a recent collaborative project about ageing and Alzheimer's disease.

Thomas said: "MK Community Foundation's bursary gave me the confidence, time and support to make new work, tour existing work and make invaluable contacts across Milton Keynes and the UK."

Also available are the £2,000 Adams Traditional Crafts Bursary and the £2,000 Adams Traditional Crafts Training Scholarship.

These awards are for individuals who are looking to kick-start a career in a specialist field, such as stonemasonry or metalwork, or develop their existing skills in the local area.

The deadline for applications for all awards is June 10.

For more information and to download the application forms www.mkcommunityfoundation.co.uk, or call 01908 690276.

New rules for temporary workers in the spotlight at special seminar

EMPLOYERS were educated about new temporary staff regulations at a seminar earlier this month.

The event, organised by 1st Choice Recruitment, discussed the new Agency Workers Regulations deriving from European legislation. Guests at the seminar, held at The Holiday Inn, Newport Pagnell, included industry expert Tom Hadley, from the Recruitment and Employment Confederation (REC), and law specialists from Woodfines solicitors.

The new regulations are designed to give temporary workers parity in pay and employment conditions by ensuring the treatment which already applies to fixed-term and part-time permanent workers is extended to agency staff after a 12-week qualifying period.

The legislation will come into force in October and will impact on any business employing a temporary worker through a recruitment agency.

1st Choice Recruitment is running a further seminar at The Barns Hotel in Bedford on Wednesday, May 25 from 9-11am. Call 1st Choice Recruitment on 01908 695599, or email mk@1stchoicerec.com for more information.

Company will help people have barbecues all year

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

Tom and Camilla Dyer ready to launch their new barbecue delivery food service

EVERYONE loves a barbecue and everyone loves a takeaway, so why not combine the two?

That's the idea for a new business which is just about to launch in Milton Keynes.

Tom and Camilla Dyer, who run catering company Flamed Foods, have teamed up with Great Brickhill butcher Simon Boddy and a menu of barbecued food will soon be cooked up and delivered to homes across the city.

The company, called Percys, will soon have its own website and it is hoped that everywhere in Milton Keynes will eventually be covered.

According to Mr Dyer, it won't simply be a case of just putting some burgers and sausages onto a grill.

Smoked and slow cooked meats and homemade barbecue sauces and rubs will be on the menu, along with coleslaw, flat breads and chips.

The aim is to utilise cooking styles that are well used in America but perhaps not done properly over here.

Mr Dyer said: "This is a new concept, I'm not aware of anything else like this in the country.

"We're targeting the takeaway delivery customer, barbecues are always popular in the summer but they can be an all year round thing."

Chuck steak burgers, briskets of beef and hand-pulled shoulders of pork will be among the dishes on offer, but Mr Dyer said there were 'hundreds of ideas'.

"The food will work brilliantly as fast food as you can do a lot of the preparation before," he said.

"It's all about authentic flavours and techniques."

It's a first for fruit lovers

A RARE fruit is on sale at a city garden centre.

The Pineberry, a peculiar mix of strawberry and pineapple, is available at Frosts Garden Centre in Woburn Sands. It is the first time the fruit has been available to buy in the region.

Pineberrys taste similar to pineapples, but are a type of strawberry with a fragrant white flesh.

Uni set to run new course

THE University Centre Milton Keynes is launching new PRINCE2 project management courses which will see successful candidates gain an internationally-recognised qualification.

The five-day courses, run in affiliation with the University of Bedfordshire, are suitable for all staff working on any kind of project and for project managers already using PRINCE2 methods or planning to in the future.

The courses will take place from July 25, at both foundation and practitioner level.

Fair leads the way for events

THE Great British Country Fair is being hailed as the city's first successful attempt at a joint marketing initiative between key stakeholders.

Co-ordinator Destination MK hopes it will be the forerunner of more collaborative initiatives in the future after bringing together organisations including thecentre:mk, 360 Play and Xscape, which all held events over Easter.

get ready for SUMMER

Get Ready For Summer!

Summer is a great time for relaxation, recreation and renewal. If you're like most of us, you probably take advantage of the longer days and warm weather to enjoy extra time with family and friends. While enjoying the hot, lazy days of summer, keep in mind that different beauty rules apply.

If you spend lots of time outdoors and want to spice up your look naturally, try combing a little lemon juice through your hair. The sun will lighten those strands faster than your locks sans lemon, giving you an attractive sun-streaked look.

It may be hip to be tanned, but don't deep fry your skin for the sake of fashion! Your best bet is a high quality bronzer in a bottle, or for a professional natural tan try a spray tan or tan treatment at your local salon. Be safe in the sun and regularly apply at least a SPF 15 sun lotion.

For a quick skin boost in the sun, fill a misting bottle with a little bit of toner and water, and spritz your face and body for a quick cool off.

And if the thought of getting into your bikini is filling you with dread, why not take advantage of the local gyms or slimming clubs who offer great deals at this time of year.

MKLIFE | MUSIC REVIEW | LIVE MUSIC

SIMON DARNELL

SCIENCE AND FAITH

The Script

FROM the sound of it, the Script are channelling the spirit of Big Country, only without the bagpipey guitars, so we've got ourselves a Rock Song With Purpose And Drive. Well, that was the intention I'm sure, but actually it's more like a rock song you'd listen to if you were driving. As for the lyrics - yes, I know they're only metaphors, but still. 'You won't find faith or hope down a telescope,' starts the chorus, apparently unaware that if you want to go stargazing you have to point the thing up. Sigh. There must be better songs than this coming out.

FUN

I DISAGREE. It's melancholic and drags on a bit (which is a bit weird considering you're meant to dance to this), but it's not really fun. Next!

STARLIGHT

Sophie Ellis Bextor

IT'S not easy being a successful disco diva, and I should know; why do you think I write music reviews instead?

I can't sing, can't dance and there are Doctor Who monsters that are better looking than me, and those are the three things you need in order to succeed.

Ms Ellis Bextor, on the other hand, has a tick in all the boxes and that's probably why she's still going.

Fair enough, she's not as big as she once was but if you begin your career (or more accurately, restart) with a massive number one single there's usually only one way things can go after that and contrary to what Yazz says, it's not up. So here she is with her latest comeback single - Sophie, not Yazz - and it's a tad slower and a lot smoother.

It's certainly more sophisticated than her recent output, and yet it feels thoroughly inconsequential.

In fact, I'll tell you what this song sounds like; you know when you're watching a mid-1980s movie and just as the end credits start to roll, the camera pans away from the cast and up into the sky for an aerial shot of The City?

This is the song that plays as that happens.

Starlight is the archetypal End Credits song, and because it's a bit average, it's perfect for the job.

After all, the cleaners have to come in and pick up all the wrappers and drink cartons before the next showing, so why not play something that'll encourage people not to stay to the very end?

MK THEATRE 0844 871 7652

I'M PUTTIN' on my top hat, tyin' up my white tie, brushin' off my tails...

Throw in a little dancin' cheek to cheek action, an elegant glide down the red carpet and what do you have? A Broadway-style premiere in Milton Keynes!

It is 76 years since one of the great film musicals of all time was released. Top Hat, starring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, came at just the right time to cheer up the cinema-going audience after the Great Depression. It still has the feelgood factor in elegant spades while the songs by Irving Berlin, are as witty, as catchy and as fresh now as they were when they first charmed audiences back in 1935.

So why, with all that going for it, has Top Hat never been adapted for the stage?

The simple answer is that no-one has ever managed to persuade Irving Berlin's daughters and RKO Pictures, who between them own the rights, to let them have a go. Until now.

Kenny Wax loves good, old-fashioned musical comedy and, in particular, the classic Fred and Ginger all-singing, all-dancing love story, Top Hat.

It was the original production of Me and My Girl starring Robert Lindsay and Emma Thompson that drew him into the entertainment industry as a producer in the first place. Kenny has had a string of successes in the West End but for a while it looked as though Top Hat would be the prize that remained just out of reach.

For two years his pleas to adapt the show for the stage fell on deaf ears but a combination of passion, persistence and perceptiveness eventually won his ideas the approval of the major players and earlier this year, a read and sing-through of the script was held in the presence of Hollywood royalty among whom was Fred Astaire's daughter Ava, two of Irving Berlin's daughters and the head of RKO Pictures. Wax got the green light to go ahead.

Tom and Summer

A five month national tour will, undoubtably, be followed by a transfer into the West End in spring 2012. "The Irving Berlin estate wants to see it in London," says Kenny Wax, "and if they approve it then we have high hopes that it will go to New York and then worldwide."

But in the meantime, the most long-awaited adaptation of Irving Berlin's classic rom-com musical premieres in Milton Keynes in August. And that means there are some very big dancing shoes to be filled.

At drama school, when Tom Chambers confessed that he held an ambition to appear in a Fred Astaire musical he was virtually laughed off stage. But he continued to believe that one day, the style would come back into fashion. Now his tenacity has finally paid off and Tom, who won Strictly Come Dancing in 2008 and has starred in Holby City and Waterloo Road for BBC TV, is lined up to play the part that Astaire created of Jerry Travers, a famous American tap dancer who falls head over heels in love with the irresistible Dale Tremont, played by Summer Strallen.

Summer is no stranger to musical theatre having been cast by Andrew Lloyd Webber in not one, not two, but three of his shows: Cats; The Sound of Music and most recently, Love Never Dies. Along the way she has picked up a clutch of Olivier Award nominations - and a pair of shoes with heels SO high it made me feel giddy just to look at them.

"These shoes were a present to myself when I picked up the third Olivier nomination" she says. "And they were very expensive! But I'm not usually into all that. My dogs, have more clothes than I do."

Summer's chihuahuas, Bam-Bam and Pebbles, will be touring with her but it's unlikely that the newest addition to Tom Chambers' family will be hanging around the dressing room while he's twirling his cane and tilting his top hat on stage.

It took Tom 20 years to propose to his childhood sweetheart, Clare. But then she was only five when they first met; he, the older man, was all of ten years old. Now, with the imminent arrival of their first baby he says, "It's really important to have a base. We've bought a nice little cottage and I'll certainly be home at weekends. Of course, the wife and baby can still come on tour - as long as I can sleep in a room next door!"

HEART FM COLUMN

HEART Breakfast show presenters Stuart and Natalie wake you up each weekday and write to you each week in MK NEWS.

IT'S been a long held ambition of ours to eat at the 'Fat Duck' in Bray, home to the culinary genius that is Heston Blumenthal.

We caught up with Heston this week to talk about his new Channel 4 show and his search for the UK's next up coming chef.

He told us that the inspiration for his famous snail porridge came after one of his chef's had proposed to his girlfriend in a Chinese restaurant in New York where they had fish porridge on the menu. Heston being Heston thought he could take that idea to a whole new level using snails.

We were also surprised to hear that he likes nothing better than a good donner kebab after a few pints on a night out.

We also caught up with the lovely Lorraine Kelly this week who is lending her voice to a brand new Children's TV Show, 'rah rah the noisy lion'.

She told us that despite having older children she has really enjoyed narrating stories aimed at younger kids. "When my daughter was young I absolutely loved reading stories to her, so it's really nice to do that again."

Given the choice of a classic children's TV show to bring back she would love to see Mr Ben back on our screens and the Flintstones. "I think you could give the Flintstones a whole new spin with Eammon Holmes giving it a whole new Irish flavour. He can really ya-ba-dab-adoo! He'd be a cracking Fred Flintstone," she said.

Finally, we're only a few weeks away from the very first Take That shows and we have managed to get some tickets, so keep your eyes on this column in the coming weeks and we'll tell you how you can get hold of them.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday from 6am-10am on Heart 103.3FM.

ROWING REGATTA

MK ROWING CLUB REGATTA

Saturday, 10am-5pm

BIG crowds are expected to line the shores of the south lake of Caldecotte for the annual Milton Keynes Rowing Club (MKRC) Regatta.

With GB crews dominating international events, interest in rowing is at an all time high and in the run up to the 2012 Olympics, the sport is enjoying increasing popularity.

Crews from regional rowing clubs including Northampton, Oundle and Bedford will compete in the regatta and racing will continue all day.

The schedule includes male and female crews racing in single sculls, doubles and fours, through to the mighty sweep oar eights.

Crews will be racing side by side and spectators will be able to watch the excitement as the crews' power their way to the finish line.

"Caldecotte Lake is such a great place for a regatta," said Rebecca Trouse, MKRC chairman.

"The public can get an unobstructed view of the boats racing the 500 metres from the bridge on the south lake to the spectator area near the boathouse."

Why not pack a picnic and take the family along for what promises to be a great day out with entertainment for all ages that is free to watch.

PARK LIFE

DID you know Campbell Park has more than 107 acres to explore?

Just a stone's throw from the theatre district, the park hosts many of the city's key events and festivals, including the spectacular firework display, annual open-air cinema and Twenty20 cricket matches.

While many people are familiar with the events arena, the park is a great place to explore and enjoy the changing seasons.

Campbell Park combines an imaginative mix of formal gardens, ponds, woodland and pasture.

The Belvedere, which is the great promontory at the top of the park, offers unrivalled views into Bedfordshire.

It's a perfect place for kite flying in the summer and its slopes provide ideal sledging during the winter.

Running alongside Silbury Boulevard, the park is more formally planted with trees and shrubs and has a series of interconnected ponds and streams.

These gardens have a network of footpaths, quiet sheltered spots ideal for a lunchtime retreat and great views of the park's grazing animals.

Sheep nibbling the grassland throughout the winter months help wildflowers, insects and birds to flourish.

A mixture of oak and birch trees provides a central woodland ridge that forms a canopy over early spring and summer wildflowers.

Below this ridge are a series of terraces that lead to the cricket green which hosts regular cricket matches including both professional and charity matches.

Beyond the cricket pavilion is one of the park's most beautiful and relaxing areas that combines canal-side footpaths and ponds.

This area is perfect for picnics, walking the dog, feeding the ducks or watching canal boats drift by.

While still in the heart of Milton Keynes and only a short walk away from the shops it offers peace and tranquility and is a great spot from which to extend your visit along the Grand Union canal and to Willen Lake.

Maintaining the beauty of the park, ensuring the trees, shrubs and grassland remain healthy and that it attracts wildlife as well as people takes a great deal of careful planning and hard work.

The Parks Trust's landscape officers work alongside park rangers, with local contractors and volunteers to ensure that the park remains attractive and welcoming to all who visit.

Stoke Goldington

TAYLORS Executive Homes is pleased to present this beautiful and spacious five-bedroom family home situated in the historic village of Stoke Goldington.

Set on an impressive sized plot, it was originally a two-bedroom bungalow belonging to the existing owner's family for a period of more than 70 years.

Externally the property has a private entrance with a double garage and parking for numerous vehicles.

The rear garden is beautifully landscaped, offering a superb outlook from the living room.

Internally the property boasts a impressive large entrance hall, 35ft lounge, large dining room, family room, study, 19ft kitchen/breakfast room, a large utility and downstairs WC.

The first floor accommodation offers a master bedroom with a walk-in dressing area and en-suite. There are also a further four double bedrooms and two family bathrooms.

The village itself offers its own pre-school, primary school and pub and is well-known for its annual steam rally.

The property, which subject to planning permission offers the potential for further development, is on the market for £780,000.

Advertorial

Take part in the year's largest UK open house weekend.

Taking place on the 21st and 22nd May

Following the massive success of previous campaigns, leading local agents, Taylors and Wilson Peacock are planning to take part in this year's largest UK Open House weekend.

Taking place on the 21st and 22nd May, the sellers of properties marketed by Taylors and Wilson Peacock will join sellers across the UK and open their doors to thousands of prospective buyers.

Time-saving and more convenient for all, sellers can open their doors and let their properties sell themselves, whilst buyers can take advantage of the warm weather and organise multiple viewings over the Saturday and Sunday, rather than trying to cram viewings into their busy weekday lifestyles.

Last year, thousands of sellers took part nationally, attracting viewings from over 29,000 buyers.

Peter Wallace, Managing Director comments: "We're really excited to be taking part in the Open House Weekend campaign as it's been a huge success in previous years.

It's a great opportunity to introduce sellers and prospective buyers and we're anticipating a large amount of interest in the properties we currently have for sale, especially here in the local area where we've seen a high demand from buyers.

So whether you're a seller and are looking to showcase your property at the event or you're a buyer wanting to register your interest, contact your local branch and we'll be happy to help."

Agents from both Taylors and Wilson Peacock will be on hand to offer their expertise all weekend and those interested in viewing a property can call any local Taylors or Wilson Peacock office to obtain a unique password to use for the viewing.

All properties taking part in the Open House Weekend are viewable at www.propertywide.co.uk

LEAGUE ONE PLAY-OFF SEMI FINAL

MK Dons assistant manager JOHN GORMAN writes exclusively for MK NEWS every week

IT WAS a fantastic performance against Peterborough on Sunday – it was really something special.

I'd like to thank the fans who were great throughout, and really got the team going. The away fans also made a difference to the atmosphere in the stadium, it made it feel like a cup final.

Credit to both teams for how they approached the game, both ourselves and Peterborough have tried to play in an attacking fashion all season and it was no different. Everyone was very positive at half-time despite being 1-0 down as we felt we were the better side.

A lot of games seem to have gone like that this season, when we've started well yet gone behind.

During the half-time team talk we just told the players to keep playing how they were playing, and they came out all guns blazing, kicking towards our own fans and playing at a high tempo.

Seeing Sam Baldock score a free-kick with that ferocity was great to see, the whole place was buzzing.

We tried to get forward to score more goals, bringing on attacking players Keanu Marsh-Brown and Jabo Ibehre, but maybe the team did take their foot off the pedal a little.

However, the penalty decision which also saw Stephen Gleeson get sent off was a difficult decision to take – he was absolutely gutted.

It was outside the box and barely even a foul, and it wasn't a sending off as men were covering behind the ball.

Peterborough were over the moon with the result as they could easily have been out of it. Their manager Darren Ferguson has admitted that we were the better side _ they couldn't really have complained if it had finished 4-1.

We are now back in training for the biggest game of the season in Peterborough tomorrow. Of course we only need to avoid defeat to go through but that is not how we play – we play to win.

I have been involved in six or seven play-off semi-finals and these games are always so passionate, I'm sure that Thursday will be no different.

COMING UP

PETERBOROUGH
League One play-off semi-final, second leg
Tomorrow
London Road, KO 7.45pm

THE second leg of the semi-final is likely to be another rollercoaster ride with both sides battling to win a place in the final at Old Trafford.

Posh are sweating over the fitness of goal-keeper Joe Lewis (knee) and centre back Gabriel Zaukani (dislocated shoulder) who were both forced off at stadiummk on Sunday.

If the pair don't make it Paul Jones is expected to play in goal, with Kelvin Langmead likely to start in defence.

One player who will definitely be missing is suspended Charlie Lee, who was sent off at the weekend.

DONS hold a slight edge in their crucial play-off tie with Peterborough after an incredible afternoon of twists and turns at stadiummk.

After falling behind, Karl Robinson's side came roaring back in the second half with three quick goals, before a dubious penalty decision again altered the balance of the tie.

Posh took the lead after just eight minutes when David Martin could only parry Nathaniel Mendez-Laing's shot from the edge of the area.

The ball fell kindly to League One's top scorer Craig Mackail-Smith, who was left with a simple tap-in as the Dons looked in vain for an off-side flag.

Mendez-Laing, a constant threat in the opening stages, then teed up Mackail-Smith again on the left hand side but this time the prolific striker's shot flew over.

Dons came back into the game and nearly levelled through Sam Baldock, who was just inches away from getting onto the end of Mathias Doumbe's cross.

An equaliser before half-time would have been deserved, and it would have come if Joe Lewis had not superbly tipped away Doumbe's header.

It was the Posh keeper's last notable contribution though as he was forced off during the break with a knee injury, picked up after an earlier collision with Charlie Lee.

Back-up keeper Paul Jones had a nightmare start to the second half as fired-up Dons struck three times in the opening 12-minutes to claim a commanding position in the tie.

Powell prodded home from close range after Jones had failed to claim a cross shortly after the restart, and Baldock then drilled in a superb 30-yard free kick to give the Dons the lead.

The home side smelt blood and continued to pile forward, and Angelo Balanta added number three by firing in at Jones' near post.

Things went from bad to worse for the visitors when Lee, who had already been booked for fouling Powell, received a second yellow card for bringing down the same man to reduce Darren Ferguson's side to ten.

Baldock then wasted an opportunity to score a fourth, dragging his shot wide when presented with a chance near the six-yard box.

A three goal cushion would have left Peterborough with a mountain to climb, but it didn't come and Posh grabbed a lifeline in controversial circumstances.

Mark Little embarked on a superb surging run which saw him cover most of the field, and when he darted towards the box he was brought down by Stephen Gleeson.

Replays suggested contact was outside of the box but the ref pointed to the spot and also sent Gleeson off, before Grant McCann tucked away the resulting penalty.

Lightning signing

ICE HOCKEY

YOUNG defenceman Tom Norton has signed up with MK Lightning for the new season.

Nottingham-born Norton, who will celebrate his 21st birthday next month, worked his way up through his home city's junior ice hockey system, playing his first full season for Elite League side Nottingham Panthers last year.

Capped by Great Britain at U20 level, Norton has taken part in summer training camps run by Panthers' coach Corey Neilson, who described him as 'one of the biggest prospects around' because of his ability and composure on the puck.

During his season with the Panthers he helped the side claim both the play-off trophy and Challenge Cup.

Player-Coach Nick Poole said he was certain that the new addition would help to boost the Lightning's ranks.

He said: "We're thrilled to be able to sign such a promising young player from the Elite League to help strengthen our roster for next season.

"Tom brings experience gained from a full season in a one of the country's most successful teams.

"He's young and hungry to make his mark in the sport, and we are happy to be able to give him the chance to shine and show exactly what he is capable of."

Poole added that the Lightning always pride themselves in having a team that is built from the back.

"We are sure Tom will help to once again make the MK Lightning one of the toughest teams to score against in the league," he said.

LEAGUE ONE PLAY-OFF SEMI FINAL

Stephen Gleeson turns away in disbelief as ref Jon Moss shows him the red card on Sunday

Gleeson cleared for crunch

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

MIDFIELDER Stephen Gleeson will be able to take his place in MK Dons' line-up for tomorrow's huge play-off second leg with Peterborough after the FA overturned his straight red card.

Referee Jon Moss gave the Irishman his marching orders for clipping the heels of marauding Posh defender Mark Little but, with two Dons players coming round to cover, a clear goal-scoring opportunity had not been denied.

Manager Karl Robinson said: "It's great news. We all felt the FA would make the correct decision and I am glad that it's gone through the right avenues.

"People can make mistakes in every walk of life and a mistake has been made, but it has been rectified which is great. Stephen has been in fantastic form all season and he deserves his chance to help get this club into the final."

Gleeson avoiding a suspension is a huge boost but Robinson admitted that waiting until yesterday afternoon to hear the FA's ruling had negatively affected the club's preparation.

"It's had a massive impact," he said. "I wish we'd known earlier as we've done a lot of preparation on things like shape and set pieces."

While the red card has been rescinded, one decision that can't be reversed is the penalty Moss awarded after the incident.

This was another bad decision as Gleeson's contact was made outside the box, and when Grant McCann tucked away the spot-kick Posh found fresh hope after being 3-1 down.

Robinson felt his players took their foot off the gas when they had a two goal advantage, but he said his plans for London Road would not have changed whatever the result.

"We've had a number of unbelievable performances this season, one more and we'll see where we are," he said. "If you told everyone we'd be 3-2 up in a play-off semi-final at London Road, we'd have taken it. We can't wait."

The boss admitted that his players had practiced penalties in preparation for a possible shoot-out tomorrow night, although obviously he hopes that it won't come to that.

"We've prepared for every eventuality," he said, "but we're that fit that extra-time doesn't worry us. The boys didn't look tired at the end of the first leg, they came in and looked like they could go again."

Chadwick looks to Old Trafford

DONS star Luke Chadwick has an extra incentive for wanting the Dons to reach the play-off final, as the winner-takes-all showpiece is taking place at his old stomping ground of Old Trafford.

The midfielder joined Manchester United as a boy and would love to grace the famous turf again for what would be a massive occasion.

Chadwick has been a revelation at the Dons since joining in 2008, winning Player of the Year for two straight years, and now his sights are fully focused on getting past Peterborough and then on to the Championship.

Winning the final at Old Trafford, a ground he describes as the best in the country apart from Wembley, would be the perfect way to do just that.

"I have great memories of Man Utd as I was first there when I was about 14, I enjoyed every minute of it," Chadwick said.

"I've not been for a few years so it would be great to go back and play on the ground.

"Everyone will be up for it and it will be an absolutely incredible occasion if we were to get there, hopefully we will be and hopefully we'll get the victory."

There were slight fears over Chadwick's fitness after he was involved in a crunching tackle at the end of the first leg, which resulted in his arm going numb.

But the feeling soon returned, allowing him to take part in training before tomorrow's massive second leg.

He said: "We can't wait to get out there, it should be another exciting game.

"We're going there with a one goal advantage and hopefully we will get another win."

Chadwick added that the squad did not feel aggrieved despite Grant McCann's controversial late penalty bringing Posh back to 3-2 and dramatically altering the balance of the tie.

"We don't feel robbed at all really," he said.

"They've scored a goal and sometimes that's the way football goes."
